DEDICATION

For his interest and encouragement as our friend; for his loyal, invincible devotion toward every phase of our college life; for his uplifting messages—simple profundity, penetrating vocabulary—his deep spiritual emotion . . .

Because, to us, he is one who symbolizes and upholds the consistent beauty and ideals of the Christian life, we dedicate our volume to Dr. Orr.

Dr. J. Alvin Orr

“Our Year” Memories, vivid and half-forgotten cling about our college home. Much will be forgotten but we carry away a handful of precious dust: A matchless interspersion of intrigue and the practical, in a traditional setting, and giving far more than a picturesque memory to her sons and daughters. We have obtained a recipe for living—we have caught a vision whose value is unspeakable. To the end that these ideals will be forever captured and forever ours we have created our yearbook.

Our Faculty

To our president we offer unwonted gratitude for his support, loyalty, and understanding.

Administration

Under whose guidance we caught inspiration for work and service, to whom we shall be indebted for instruction in uplifting principles, we acknowledge the sympathetic leadership of the Erskine faculty.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Seniors-elect of '48, we began our march on a weary day in September, '44. Our eager buoyancy lasted only through orientation. With the ennui of the classroom assuaged and the enigma of junior-sister week answered, we were undoubtedly a part of Erskine.

We returned, in '45, a paragon class, revered and respected by our irate inferiors. Somewhat sobered at the honor, we delved more seriously into duties we found our own. Traditionally, we wound the Maypole and passed on the Daisy Chain.

Burdened by junior responsibilities, '46 found us constantly tapping at new sources for imbursement of our mysterious funds. We became supporting officers for the major organizations, played serious basketball and began to chat earnestly about careers. We entertained the seniors in Sherwood Forest.

We entered more cautiously the fourth time: matriculating, rehearsing, cheering at pep rallies for the last time. We watched with hungry appraisal as our gridmen piled the Erskine victories. In bearing responsible positions, withholding nostalgia, and becoming leaders Erskine has become at last really ours—and so much of us is hers.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

A rainy day in September, we arrived—a discouraged, awe-struck group of freshmen. This "first impression" changed as we grew to know Erskine better, to love her dearly, and eventually became a part of her. We suffered through Rat Week, helped the juniors pick cotton, and sponsored a school hay ride. From among us, Marty Black became beauty queen and two were cheerleaders.

Older, wiser and more sophisticated, we returned, to greet old friends joyfully and to make new ones. We put the freshmen through their paces, danced around the Maypole, and became another link in the traditional Daisy Chain.

Now, as juniors, we begin to realize the burden of responsibilities that will soon be ours. Through junior-sister week, we met the freshmen. Traditionally, we began to plan early for Junior-Senior, by sponsoring a very successful Halloween Carnival. We cheered our football team on, as they wound up that heart-warming string of victories.

And, on the deeper side: candlelight services, "Y" programs, Religious Emphasis week—all, have brought us, through the years, to an abiding appreciation of the things for which Erskine stands, and an inward thrill of joy at being a part of her.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

September, '46, seemed to be all rain patched, with transient glimpses of sunshine. We were freshmen, the largest class in the history of Erskine. Ours was the place of honor at church parties, Dr. Grier's reception, and the soiree. Then rodents, we became, at the hands of the Sophomores—but only for a day. Soon we found ourselves part of the magnanimous heart of Erskine.

In Dr. Orr's Sabbath School Class, and in chapel and evening watch, we came to know deep reverence. We, ever oppressed by parallel, became a part of Mrs. Pitt's midnight-oil tradition. From among our number came the beauty queen and five cheerleaders.

Joyous reunions marked the beginning of that year in which we found ourselves revered and obeyed Sophomores. Again, we gave to the school its beauty queen, and two runners-up, its home coming queen and five sponsors. We listened, enthralled, to the honey-toned serenaders; and became especially fond of the cracked records in Bruce's. We cheered a winning football team and made the maroon and gold inseparably ours.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

To everyone but Erskine freshmen, it was just an ordinary day in September, for it found at dusk, a group of wondering, amazed creatures herded into a new fold. Our early timidity was soon driven away, however, by the desire for companionship, and questions flew like volleys between these new disciples of the old Erskine spirit.

Our soaring egos abruptly fell with the arrival of the sophomores. After the torturous, inevitable Rat Day, we emerged wiser for our humility, on guard for upperclassmen and ready to face any new challenge which college could fling to us. We participated in all the activities, accumulated our share of minors, worried over exams, were thrilled at the Home-coming festivities, and witnessed the revival of the Erskine spirit through the victorious football season. We contributed Leila Pursley and Tommy Daum, cheerleaders, and to the beauty section, Betty Jane Blackwell.

We partook of Erskine's warmth, friendliness, guidance, and protection. We absorbed some academic knowledge of the fine arts in pursuit of our education for tomorrow. But, our most profound lessons were in learning to know more fully the One upon whose words and commandments Erskine builds her foundations.

President

Varying only in its yearly selection of members, the Woman's Governing Council meets weekly to discuss student problems and execute their decisions for the benefit of all concerned. In endeavoring to uphold the traditional ideals of the school, this circle of members emphasizes the importance of "the highest standard of personal honor" and the responsibility of each in "helping others to live up to such a standard."

Student Government

The Student Government strives to uphold and maintain the highest standards of living conditions on the campus. All men students, by virtue of their registration, are members of the organization. However, the organization is headed by the president, elected by the student body, and a council composed of two representatives from each class.

The "Y" forms one of the most vital parts of our student life. It welcomes us, as freshmen, at the soiree. It leads us, through evening devotionals and Sabbath night services, to a closer communion with God. It inspires us during Religious Emphasis Week, led this year by Dr. John Gerstner of Pittsburgh. It thrills us with its Christmas festival and pageant, and in the spring, by the Easter Sunrise Service. It is for us, at each step of the way, a Guiding Light.

During the week of November 17-23 in cooperation with the Y. W. C. A., the Y. M. C. A. sponsored Erskine's annual religious emphasis week, selecting as speaker Dr. John H. Gerstner, Jr., a United Presbyterian minister. Combining inspirational messages with a forceful dynamic delivery, Dr. Gerstner spoke to large audiences and immediately won the admiration of all his listeners.

The general topic for the week was "The Law and the Gospel", and the scriptural theme was "To Me to Live is Christ". The young speaker presented a study of the Ten Commandments at morning chapel services; evening texts were taken from the Gospels.

A quickening of the spiritual lives of all the students was the purpose of religious emphasis week, and that purpose was realized. Private talks to individuals and informal group discussions with the speaker had a profound effect upon the student body; the minister's Christian zeal overflowed into the hearts and minds of everyone on the campus.

Christian Association

The Life Service Group is an organization of those who are interested in dedicating their lives to Christian service, regardless of what field in which they may serve.

PAT COVONE
President

This group meets every other Sabbath throughout the year, and this year sponsored the Christmas program presented by Miss Janet Robinson of Charlotte.

Unique in its being the Christian organization made up of candidates for the mission field, the F. M. F. experienced a fruitful year under the leadership of Margaret Hood. Boxes were prepared for German and Japanese relief, and the members met faithfully each evening to pray for active missionaries on the field today. The prayer room was remodelled during the year and became an increasingly sacred spot in the hearts of many of the students.

Camera Club

WINN

The first of its kind, the Camera Club began its activities in the early fall under the tutorship of Andy Winn. With a maximum membership of twenty, the group endeavors to study lighting, developing, printing, enlarging, and portraiture. The Club meets twice monthly and also hears outstanding photographers of the state who speak on lighting, toning, and other interesting features. The organization offers invaluable instruction to those interested in photography as a profession or hobby.

MIXED CHORUS . . .

The Mixed Chorus, a group of one hundred members, gives two public concerts annually—a Christmas concert and a Commencement concert. Miss Ivah Dickson directs the chorus in practice twice a week. Martha Washington is accompanist and Jessie Colvin, Jane Halliday, and Jim Bell are librarians.

Select musicians from this organization received the unique honor of singing with some 300 college students in the Annual Spring Music Festival in Columbia.

MUSIC LOVERS CLUB

The Music Lovers Club was organized to promote fellowship among students taking applied music and those having an active interest in music. It promotes also a more cultural understanding of the fine points of musical art. Meetings consist chiefly of programs relating to newest music trends or new approach to the seasonal music.

A. R. P. CHURCH CHOIR

Composed of students of the college, the church choir assists in the Sabbath morning services, special Thanksgiving service and is prepared for contribution wherever the anthem is needed.

CLUB . . . 1948

Sponsoring, possibly, the greatest variety of social activities, the Home Ec. Club seeks to foster the practical domestic arts. With Gloria Clinkscales as president, the group planned a spring trip to Charleston, remodelled the Home Ec. Department, sponsored a Christmas tea, served waffles in bed, attended the Winthrop Convention, entertained the Spring Convention at Erskine, was host to numerous socials, always the authority and stand-by for social functions.

MIRROR

Although restricted in the number of publications before the Thanksgiving holidays, the Mirror subsequently regained its pre-war place of esteem in the eyes of students and subscribers. With the unique honor of having the first twenty-one issues more extensively read than in any one preceding year, the Mirror was soon printing approximately 1,000 copies weekly.

Editorial policies are designed to keep before readers the fact that Erskine is an A. R. P. college, founded to train men and women in Christian leadership. Financially, the Mirror was put on a sound, profitable basis, due to the capable management of Stanley Bennett and George Polichuk. Both balanced and unbalanced front page make-up styles were used, a style sheet was adopted, and a Mirror library was established.

FOOTBALL

SEPTEMBER 20—Anderson

ERSKINE 27—ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN 0

The Flying Fleet opened its 1947 season with a bang. Scoring in every quarter the maroon-clad team rolled up a 27-0 victory over a fighting but outclassed Atlantic Christian eleven. It was Erskine's game from start to finish, and the helpless Christians never threatened the Seceder goal.

SEPTEMBER 27—Anderson

ERSKINE 19—ROLLINS 9

The Seceders surprised everyone in the south as they rolled up a decisive 19-9 victory over the strong Rollins Tars from Florida. Although outweighed some twenty pounds to the man the Fleet rolled up a 19-2 command lead at the half and were never headed by the big Florida team. "Rabbit" Lowery intercepted a Rollins pass and raced sixty yards for one of the Erskine markers.

OCTOBER 4—Johnson City, Tenn.

ERSKINE 20—EAST TENN. STATE 14

The Fleet made it three in as many starts when they defeated a powerful Tennessee team 20-14 in Johnson City. The men from the "Old Hickory" State took a 14-0 command in the first quarter, but this was short lived as the Fleet rolled up twenty points in the second and fourth periods.

OCTOBER 11—Anderson

ERSKINE 0—PRESBYTERIAN 6

The Presbyterian Blue Stockings capitalized on a freak pass in the closing minutes of the final stanza to defeat Erskine, 6-0, and hand the Fleet her first loss of the season. The Seceders marched to the Hose one-yard stripe but gave the ball up on downs.

OCTOBER 18—Anderson

ERSKINE 14—EASTERN CAROLINA 0

Rebounding from the 0-0 defeat by Presbyterian the Fleet rolled up her fourth victory over Eastern Carolina Teachers College by the tune of 14-0. Although there was no scoring in the first half the game was played in the Tar Heels' territory. The Fleet got its second wind in the last quarter and scored fourteen points to earn the victory.

OCTOBER 25—Gastonia, N. C.

ERSKINE 19—GUILFORD 0

Playing on a muddy Gastonia field the Fleet rolled up nineteen points in the last six minutes of play over a strong Guilford eleven. The encounter was played on a field that was covered from goal to goal with two inches of water.

NOVEMBER 1—Elon, N. C.

ERSKINE 7—ELON 17

The Elon Christians proved too much for the Fleet and rolled up a 17-7 victory over the ARPs. The Fleet had to travel 300 miles for this one and then play before an Elon Home Coming.

NOVEMBER 8—Due West

ERSKINE 26—STETSON 0

Old grads saw a jet-propelled Flying Fleet down a heavy Stetson eleven from DeLand, Florida, 26-0 on Home Coming Day. Erskine rolled up nineteen points in the first half and seven more in the third quarter. The mighty Erskine line held the Hatters for a minus rushing offense.

NOVEMBER 15—Newberry

ERSKINE 28—NEWBERRY 12

The Fleet spoiled the Newberry Home Coming, 28-12. This game was played on a field covered by an inch of water from goal to goal. Newberry spoiled Erskine's home coming last year and the Fleet were out for sweet revenge and that's just what they got.

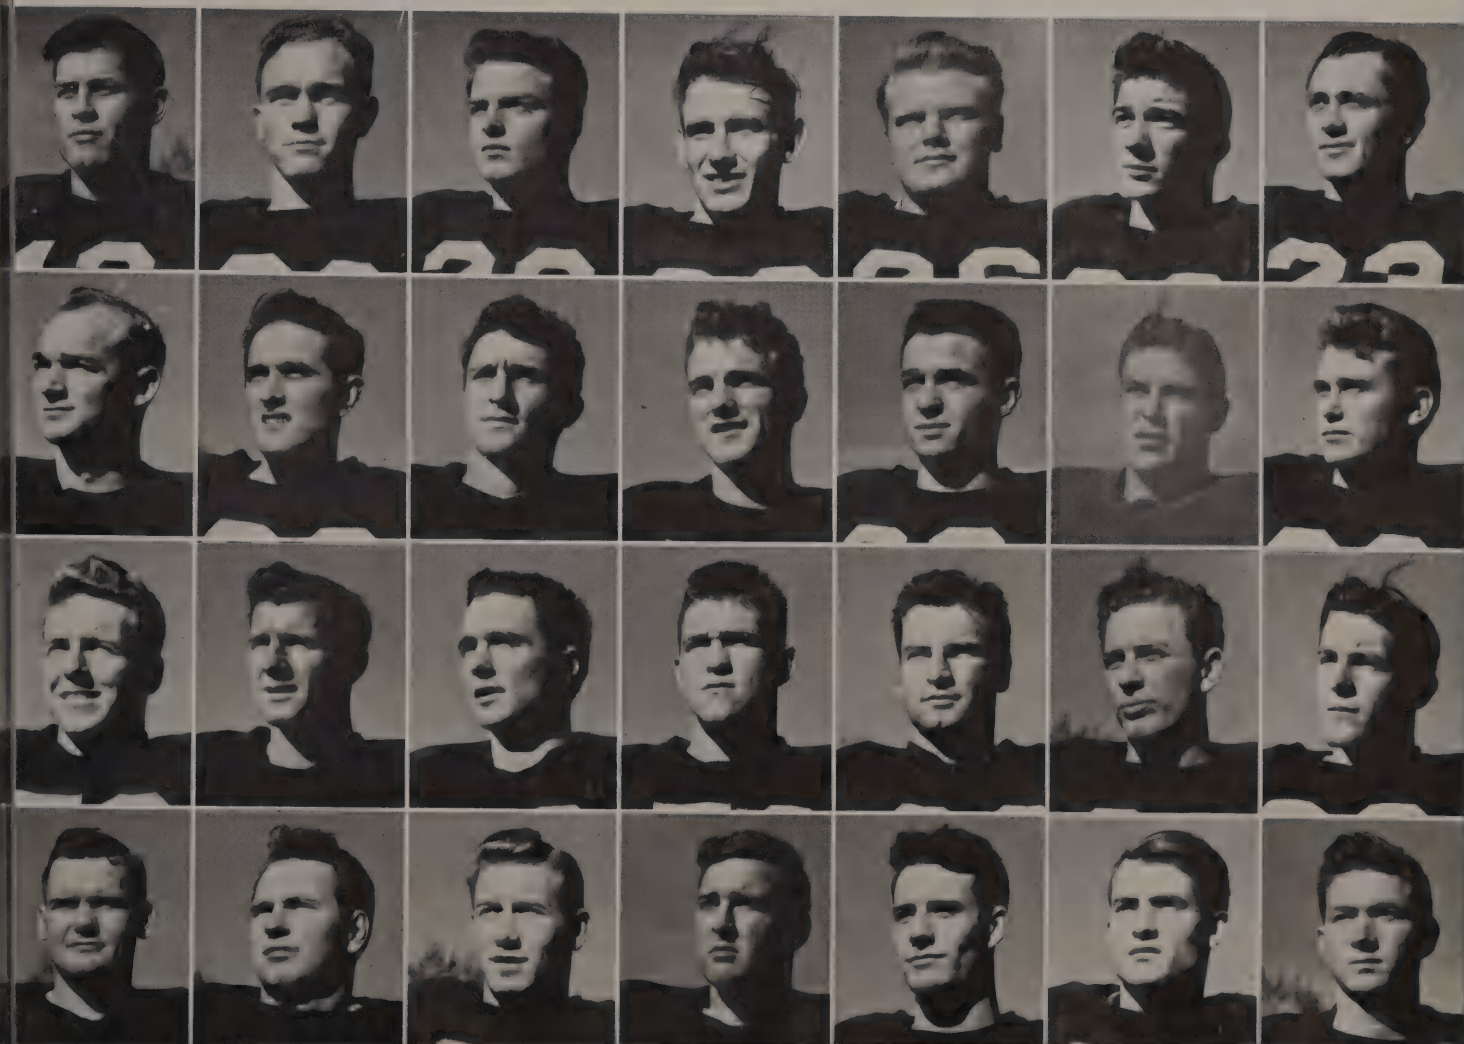

NOVEMBER 27—Anderson

ERSKINE 20—WOFFORD 26

A crippled Fleet bowed to Sewell and Company from Wofford, 26-20 on Thanksgiving Day. The Fleet was leading 20-19, but a fumble in the closing minutes gave the Terriers the victory.

THE SQUAD

Ansley, Barron, Bennett, Blackston, Bolin, Bonds, Brown, Bryan, Carr, Corsi, Dawkins, Deer, Franza, Knight, Golding, Gorham, Hamilton, Harrel, High, Hipps, Hunter, Lowery, Muirhead, Myers, Neill, Oates, Parker, Pierce.

Football . . . 1947

The Erskine Flying Fleet enjoyed one of its best seasons in years in winning seven games while losing only three. Such strong teams as Rollins, Guilford, Stetson, and Tennessee State were met and defeated by the maroon- and gold-clad team.

Coaches Johnny McMillan and Gene Alexander built from a team that did not win a game in 1946 and surprised sports fans throughout the South with their hard-fighting eleven. Coach McMillan was awarded the honor of being elected "The Coach of the Year in South Carolina", an honor which is cherished by all South Carolina coaches.

SHELTON scores from the six-yard line against Stetson. Erskine players are GOLDING, 40; SITTON, 49; and HIGH, 47.

CAPTAIN BILLY BRYAN, place-kicking specialist, makes good another extra point. He made eighteen for the season. Other Fleet players visible are DEER, 29; MYERS, 48; and HIPPS, 30.

Yes, it was complete and good for a touchdown. "RABBIT" LOWERY is about to catch the touchdown pass as WOODRUFF (53), looks on. Erskine defeated Atlantic Christian, 27-0.

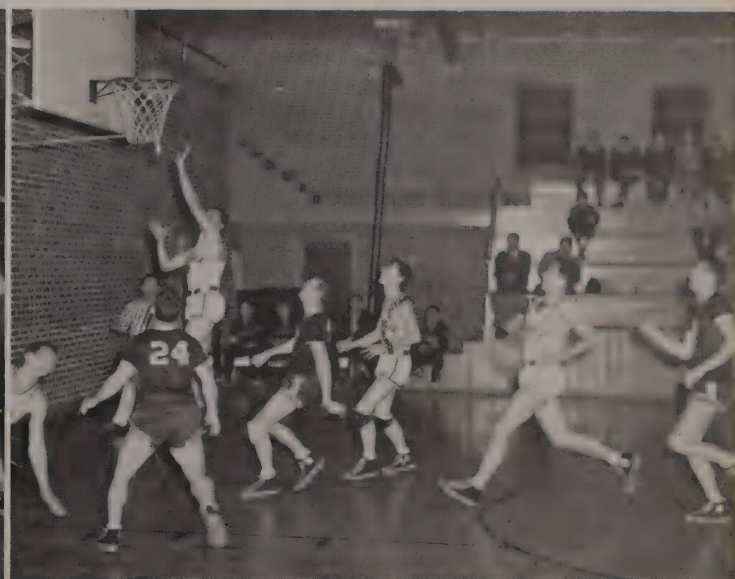

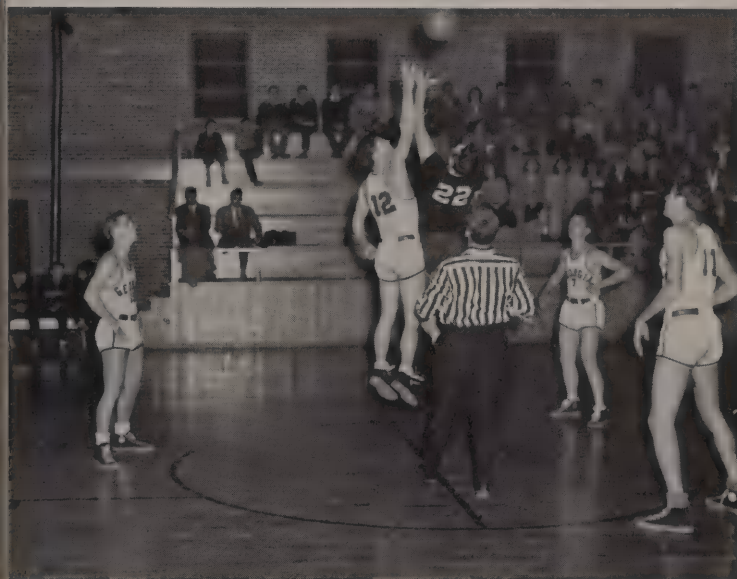

BASKETBALL

The ARROW goes to press before the basketball season gets well underway, but from the first games played the Fleet shows remarkable improvement over last year's squad. The team is handicapped again by lack of experience and height, but they do show speed and the will to win. Lettermen returning are John Lauricella, Bob McCoy, Wayne McCoy, Harold Prater, Henry Bonner, Billy Tinkler, and Bill Hood. Coaches McMillan and Alexander are doing a fine job in tutoring the Flying Fleet.

BASEBALL

Having only a few hopeful candidates, many lacking in experience and poise, Coach Moss molded a team which went on the field with enthusiasm and fight. Though the Fleet lost all but one game the games were closer than the score might indicate. The season was high lighted by the thrilling defeat of South Carolina 4 to 3 in the opening game.

The 1948 picture looks much brighter since only one player was lost by graduation and several prospective new comers will be added to the squad.

TENNIS

Last year the tennis team faced several strong opponents. Although Erskine only won one match, they did manage to win several sets. Williams carried the lead in most sets and won enough to represent us splendidly. Wilson, Plaxico, and Tinkler also played fine.

The Women's Physical Education program carried on throughout the year many varied activities, striving toward the goals of good sportsmanship and good technique.

This year the program opened with unison exercises, tumbling, and pyramid building. Volleyball was the first major sport which climaxed with a class tournament sponsored by the W. A. A. The Junior Class came out on top. The Varsity gave the Faculty team a good fight.

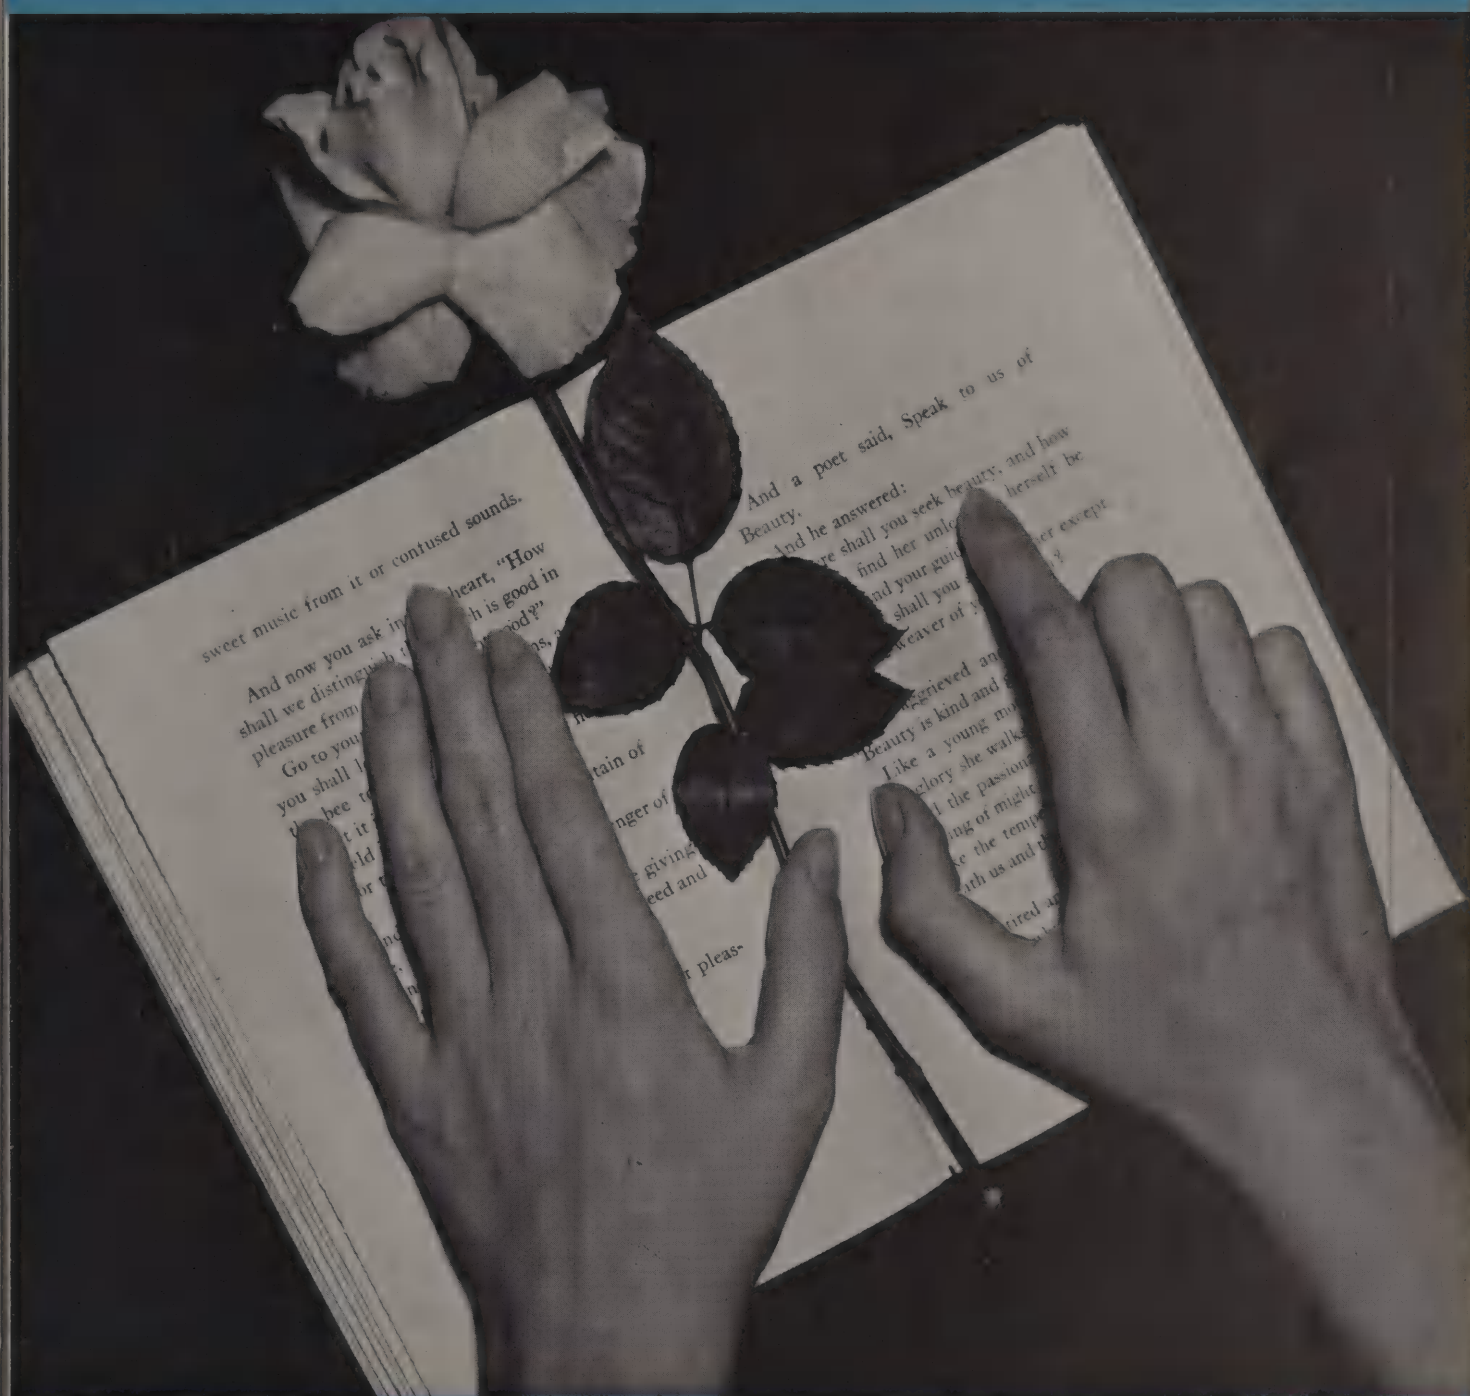

SPORTS

Basketball also a major sport, was greatly enjoyed both from a player and spectator standpoint. The class basketball tournament was highly contested. Among the recreational sports badminton and archery led in popularity. While working toward May Day much initiative was shown in folk and modern dancing. In the early spring softball had the field. Late spring found tennis and swimming vying for attention.

Enthusiasm and wholesome spirit have permeated the year.

Don't
 It's been small knowing you this year at Eskine.
 you are a swell guy
 I remember Rivers and her auto ~~was~~ loads. ~~at~~ ~~the~~ ~~first~~
 I wish you WINE!!
 HEALTH!!
 MEN!! — Bill King

It's hope that we always have as much fun as we have here at Eskine. That always.

Sam,
 I don't just what I should say about a fellow like you. Of course
 I have really enjoyed having you for a roommate this year and in looking forward to it again next year. Still I guess I had better add a few lines and close with the sincere wish that you always have luck,
 success, and happiness
 Always a friend,
 We are

Don,

When you get married and
Live in a shack
Teach those kids to spit
Thru the cracks.

Yaas .. Yaas

Yours pal.

"Mickuf"

Best of luck to you, Don!
